THE TRIBUTE QUILT – ART WITH HEART

This unique tribute quilt, representing organizations, Clubs & individuals from our Community and beyond, addresses HIV-AIDS in a visual and tactile manner. Created in 1998 as a Club project, this unique Tribute Quilt will be housed permanently as part of the 75th Anniversary Celebrations and will become a learning tool for youth and empowerment for all who see it.

This anniversary event will be shared by the Rotary Club in conjunction with the Town of Whitby and the Trustees of both the Whitby Library Board and Board of Education.

Time and place is being arranged.

Check out the exciting and unique 75th anniversary celebrations on the Rotary Club of Whitby or District 7070 websites:
